Dope From the Police Court

"Yes, judge, I see back again. I just don't seem to stay away from this here place. You know, the first time they done brought me to the station, Saturday night, I put up my bail and they turned me loose. But they done got me before I reached the corner. You all share must like this nigger."

This was the tale told by "Governor" Allen in police court Monday afternoon, when he appeared to answer to the charge of drunkenness. "Governor" Allen has been a frequent visitor to the police court for some time, and has been charged with drunkenness, and has been charged with drunkenness, and has been charged with drunkenness.

Monday Judge Bowman sentenced the "governor," who, by the way, is the chief executive of Bird Island, to serve thirty days in the city jail. Nine other men and one woman, who had drunk and committed the offense, he was sentenced to ninety days in the city jail.

John Van Allen, charged with stealing an overcoat from Joe Lamping at 79 West Second South street, pleaded guilty to the charge. He told the court that he had just arrived in the city from Denver and was drunk at the time he committed the offense. He was sentenced to ninety days in the city jail.

Frank More, charged with disturbing the peace, will appear before the court for his trial November 3. More told the court that he had been a resident of the city for a number of years, and was released upon his own recognizance.

Charles Leary, a newsboy who had come from Denver for the purpose of taking charge of the sales department of the Denver Post, pleaded guilty to the charge of carrying concealed weapons and was sentenced to thirty days in the city jail. It is said that Leary is considered a "bad man" among the newsboys and that he had made threats against a number of the local newsboys.

For refusing to pay for a meal he had eaten in a west side restaurant, Monday, Davis, a negro, was sentenced to dine in the city jail for the next fifteen days.

Judge Bowman and Assistant City Attorney Rogers took pity on Sam Dede, charged with drunkenness. Sam pleaded guilty to the charge and told the court, in a frank manner, that he had just been released Saturday from serving twenty-seven months in the state prison. The long wait for liberty ended, he went forth among his friends, intoxicated with the sense of freedom. The world was very beautiful and Sam was very happy. A few friends asked him to celebrate the victory by taking a drink. Unused to the liquor, the few drinks made him boisterous, with the result that he landed back inside prison walls, and, when he awoke Sunday morning and gazed out through the bars of his cell, he thought for a moment that his recent liberty was but a dream. The taste in his mouth, however, speedily reminded him of the way he had passed the first day of freedom and he vowed to stop drinking. When Judge Bowman heard his story he told him to go, but to make a better start. Sam smiled and in a husky voice said that he would.

The trial of Al Davis, charged with battery of the person of E. Garver, will come before the court November 19. Davis was released upon his own recognizance.

Edward Seibert failed to appear when his name was called and a bench warrant was issued for him. Seibert is a business man of the city, who is charged with a violation of the pure food ordinance.

Send for his report and read his reasons why this is so. The report contains an analysis of the soil and gives results of Government data on the climate. He tells the reason.

10,000 Acres of Carey Act Land Will Be Open for Public Entry at Medbury November 16

Part of the land will be opened by PUBLIC DRAWING, and old residents who relinquished their holdings have preference rights upon some of it.

This Land Can Be Selected Now and Filed Upon at Time of the Drawing

Water rights $65 per acre, with ten years to make payment.

Five-eighths of an inch every year, which is equal to ten inches of rainfall every year.

Maintenance guaranteed not to exceed $5 cents per acre.

BEST WATER RIGHT IN THE WEST.

Town Lots by the Acre

At the date of the opening the company will offer for sale, at Public Drawing, UNDER CAREY ACT RULES, a large tract of deeded land in acreage tracts. Some of it adjoins the town of Medbury, and as the Company has platted but 90 acres into town lots, this land will be valuable for town lots as soon as the town increases in size.

Every Tract One Price—$1,050

No acreage tracts will be sold before the opening at any price, but everything will be put up at public drawing. The first number out will have the choice of the entire tract.

$210 Covers Every Payment for One Year

The first payment of $210 is the only payment required on BOTH LAND AND WATER for one year. Out of this amount the Company makes the first payment on the water, and the purchaser is given CAREY ACT TERMS ON THE BALANCE DUE. The balance of the purchase price is divided into four equal payments, extending over four years.

Medbury a Town With a Future

The new town of Medbury will be surrounded with every condition to make a good town out of it. It is in the center of 15,000 acres of the BEST land in the state of Idaho, all of which will support a family to every five acres. It will be the trading point for the Twin Falls-Bruneau Segregation. It is the trading point for Bruneau Valley, on the main line of the Oregon Short Line railroad.

25% on Your Investment Is Absolutely Assured

Within thirty days after the sale, the Company guarantees to raise the price 25 per cent on every acre tract and town lot remaining unsold, so that purchasers may at once offer their holdings for an advance in price and have no competition from the Company property.
